BOOKS PRINTED FOR

J. DEBRETT.

This Day is publiſhed,

NUMBERS VI. and VII. of the DEBATES of the PRESENT SESSION,

Reviſed and collated with the Notes of ſeveral Members,

THE PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER; or, the Hiſtory of the Proceedings and Debates of LORDS and COMMONS; containing an Account of the moſt intereſting Speeches and Motions, authentic Copies of all important Letters and Papers laid before either Houſe during the PRESENT SESSION.

 The Editors flatter themſelves, that theſe Debates which they have the honour to preſent to the Public, will fully prove the earneſt Deſire they entertain to act up to the very diſtinguiſhed Patronage they have ſo long experienced. They hazard little in the opinion, that the queſtion involved in them, is of the firſt intereſt and importance; and, it is preſumed, they will not hazard leſs, in expreſſing their moſt ſanguine hopes, that from the Copiouſneſs of Detail, the Fidelity of Argument, and the Accuracy of Expreſſion, with which they are given, they will afford a very ſuperior gratification to the Public Mind.

NUMBERS VIII. IX. and X. will be publiſhed in a few Days.

Printed for J. DEBRETT, oppoſite Burlington Houſe, Piccadilly; and ſold alſo by R. BALDWIN, in Paternoſter Row; and J. SEWELL, Cornhill.

The DEBATES and PROCEEDINGS of BOTH HOUSES of PARLIAMENT,

From the year 1743, to the year 1774. Printed uniformly to bind with the Parliamentary Regiſter. In ſeven large volumes, octavo. Price 2l 12s 6d half bound and lettered.

 The ſeveral fugitive Publications of the Proceedings of Parliament, during this long and intereſting Period, have been aſſiduouſly collected, and carefully collated with the Journals. Of the Commons, there has been only one imperfect Collection publiſhed, which is become very ſcarce; and of the LORDS, there has been no Publication whatever, except a few detached Papers. This Work is intended to fill up an important Chaſm in the PARLIAMENTARY HISTORY of Great Britain—Chandler's Collection of Debates ends in the Year 1743, and the PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER commences in the Year 1774. During this Interval, there is no Account of the Proceedings of Parliament that can be relied upon.

In the debates of this period are many important motions ariſing from a variety of intereſting events, both domeſtic and foreign. Several material changes in the Adminiſtration were the conſequence of thoſe debates. As the attention of Parliament was occaſionally employed upon two long and expenſive wars with France and Spain, and the ſuppreſſion of an inteſtine rebellion, a moment's reflection will ſhew this to have been one of the moſt important periods in our hiſtory.

NAVY AND VICTUALLING DEPARTMENTS AT DISTANT PORTS.

VICTUALLING OFFICE AND SICK AND HURT OFFICE.
Presented to the HOUSE OF COMMONS, June, 1793.
Octavo, Price 7s in Boards.

These Reports must be deemed a very valuable acquisition to the Public; as they contain Authenticated Accounts of the nature of the business transacted in each of the above specified Offices, the number of Officers, their peculiar duties, their salaries, fees, and perquisites; with hints for reforming the abuses in them respectively. The Commissioners have justly gained great Credit by the publication of their very accurate and well-digested reports.

MONTHLY REVIEW, November, 1793.

The REPORT from the Select Committee to whom it was referred to examine and state the several Accounts and other Papers presented to the HOUSE of COMMONS, relating to the Public Income and Expenditure. And also to report to the House what may be expected to be the annual Amount of the said Income and Expenditure in future. March 21, 1786. Price 3s

REPORTS from the SELECT COMMITTEE appointed to examine and state the several Accounts and other Papers presented to the House of Commons in this Session of Parliament, relating to the Public Income and Expenditure; and to report to the House what has been the whole Amount of the PUBLIC INCOME and EXPENDITURE during the last Five Years, and what may be expected to be the annual Amount thereof in future; and also, what Alteration has taken place in the Amount of the Public Debt since the 5th of January, 1786. Presented to the House of Commons, May 10, 1791. Price 5s.

The above important reports contain an authentic statement of every part of the British revenue, with documents and vouchers for every department and office; includes the Appendix, being uniformly printed in Octavo. May be had complete. Price 8s 6d in Boards.

HISTORY of the FRENCH REVOLUTION.

To which is added, Political Reflections on the State of France; and a Chronology of the principal Decrees, and remarkable Events during the Sitting of the Conſtituent National Aſſembly. Tranſlated from the French of J. P RABAUT ST. ETIENNE, by JAMES WHITE, Eſq. The ſecond Edition, Price 5s in Boards,

"We have no doubt of the fidelity of Mr. White's Tranſlation, and we cannot but think that even thoſe perſons, who are unfavourably diſpoſed towards the French revolution, may be entertained and informed by the peruſal of this volume."

MONTHLY REVIEW, Appendix to vol. 8, 1792.

"We have tranſcribed much from this author, who deſerves greatly our regard and attention. It is an able narrative, generally ſpecious, and often judicious."

CRITICAL REVIEW, October, 1792.

A TOPOGRAPHICAL DESCRIPTION of the WESTERN TERRITORY of NORTH AMERICA: containing a ſuccinct Account of its Soil, Climate, Natural Hiſtory, Population, Agriculture, Manners, and Cuſtoms; with an ample Deſcription of the ſeveral Diviſions into which that Country is partitioned. By GEORE IMLAY, a Captain in the American Army during the War, and Commiſſioner for laying out Lands in the Back Settlements. To which are added, the DISCOVERY, SETTLEMENT, and PRESENT STATE of KENTUCKY; and an ESSAY towards the Topography and Natural Hiſtory of that important Country.

Alſo, 1. The ADVENTURES of Col. DANIEL BOON, one of the firſt Settlers; comprehending every important Occurrence in the Political Hiſtory of that Province.

2. The MINUTES of the PLANKASHAW COUNCIL, held at Poſt St. Vincent's, April 15, 1784.

3. An ACCOUNT of the INDIAN NATIONS inhabiting within the Limits of the Thirteen United States; their Manners and Cuſtoms, and Reflections on their Origin, by JOHN FILSON. The ſecond Edition, with conſiderable Additions, illuſtrated with correct Maps of the Weſtern Territory of North America, and of the State of Kentucky, as divided into Counties, from the lateſt Surveys, with a Plan of the Rapids of the Ohio. Price 6s. in Boards.

 The above Work contains intereſting information reſpecting the moſt œconomical and expeditious method of travelling into the interior Parts of America, directing the Meaſures to be purſued in purchaſing land, and guarding againſt the impoſitions which have long been practiſed by Land-jobbers, to the ruin of many honeſt Settlers. And, as impoſitions have proved more ſucceſsful from a belief generally entertained by Purchaſers of the extraordinary fertility of all the Soil upon the Waters of the Ohio, it particularly deſcribes that Diſtrict of Country, and points out the Veins of good and bad Land in every part of the Weſtern Territory of America.

REPORT OF ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Eſq. Secretary to the Treaſury of the United States of America, on the Subject of MANUFACTURES. Price 2s. 6d.

†‡† At a time like the preſent, when the heat of parties renders every political publication odious to the one ſide or the other, or perhaps ſuſpected by both, it is peculiarly fortunate for this work, that it muſt be equally intereſting to men of all deſcriptions, and equally approved by them. Hints for its improvement will be thankfully received by the Publiſher; as it is the Editor's moſt ardent wiſh to make it, what ſuch a work ought to be, an authentic, impartial, and complete Repoſitory of

IMPORTANT STATE PAPERS.

A continuation of this work will be publiſhed on the eve of every Seſſion of Parliament.
